Dennison as an Acrobat. Mr. Dennison, as stated upon the affidavits of several reliable men, declared at Middletown, that he would resist the Fugitive Slave Law by all means in his power, if elected Governor, saying, 'I will oppose the recapture of a slave with the bayonet, so help me God." That was at the beginning of the campaign, and was undoubtedly a true expression of his determination, should he be elected. But when that assertion brought a storm upon his head all over the State, he took the back track, and is now declaring that he will obey the Fugitive Slave Law, as long as it is a law. Which statement is to be believed, and where does he stand? Henry Shideler, for Senator, the following He takes as many positions as a weathercock | men on a barn, and when you put your finger upon him, like the Irishman's flea, be isn't urer, John Halderman; Recorder, W. there. A man has to straddle pretty wide to keep one foot on the Corwin platform and the other on the Giddings platform, at the same time; and the exertions which Dennison is making to perform that feat, are wor' thy of a professional circus actor. As a "hit" at the Senator's pet phrase-"subject only to the Constitution of the United States"it is "happy." Dean Evering-You will expuse my lonilence when I tell you that there has been nothing of importance happening or trans. piring in this portion of Engle Sum's dominns since I wrote last. You are well away that this county, as far as politics is consened is sonaidered a "burnt region." That it was always sure of returning a good fast of record, and when that was consigned in VILLIAM H. SAFFORD, of Ross County. to the tomb which its false friends had prepured for it, and the present Republican Opsition Citizens Peoples &c, party was ushered into existence, a large majority of the party, out of their old antagonistic feeling, oined in with the movement. There were some who thought of doing so until the Philadelphia Platform was adopted, when they withdrew and are now co-operating with the Democratic party. Such is now But in the Opposition runks, I am glad to say there is now a great deal of disentisfaction. The County Convention headed their The County Convention headed their Rosses, (Late L.C. County Ticket with one Jessee Stubbs for far good, old-fashioned abolition dectrines are concerned; he having been a candidate for Congress on the Abolition ticket when when the pamphlet manifesto was issued by that party in 1840, I think. Ever since then he has been known to hold the same ultre doctrines, and has been an aspirant for the nomination for Representative since the formation of the Republican party, he having olned it, as did the rest of his school, because it approached nearest his belief, but he was uniformly rejected, because well known, and the old Whig element could not sprout the right kind of capilliary substance however, and the men who were in Convention resolved to be "fed on milk" no longer and nominated Stubbs to show Joshua they were ready for the substantial diet on which to thicken their epidermis. There are hosts, GITV PROPERT however, who will not "ge him," and are resolving that the doctrines of Republicanism, as now interpreted, are not only impracticable but obnoxious; believing thus they will not vote the ticket, and are looking to the Democratic party as the protectors of the country. The feeling is wide-spread, and will, I think, come near revolutionizing the
